COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK January 3. The cotton market was nervous and irregular to day lie actionary sentimes and irregular to day lie actionary sentimes and irregular to day lie the earlier resision and there was rather a sharp break in prices, but the market rallies ground for the movement and closing steady at a net advance of 3 to 8 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of points to an advance of 9 points laverpool was a shade under expectations and the market here toon weakened almor general realizing and Southern selling. Part of the latter was attributed to New Orleans houses who were supposed to be selling here and buying in the Southern market at a premiur of about 26 points on the local May contract. This unaoustedly inspired some local selling for a reaction, while there was heavy selling by Wall Street and Western long, under which the market granually worked off to a net loss of some 5 to 12 points.

Offerings became much lighter, and there was a renewal of investment buying in the late trading which sent prices 5 to 16 points higher, with many of the early sellen covering on the advance, which tame very and denly and at a time when there was much lighter, with many of the early sellen covering and the advance, which tame very and denly and at a time when there was much lake for a further reaction. Closing prices were a shade off in the lesst under realizing this spinners in the local market have purchased fully 50.00 bales of spot certon f
